

EDGE NOTCHER

The Vicon Edge Notcher includes a feature for releasing the latch, allowing notching of round pipes after they have been rolled. It is also capable of notching tap-in locks after they have been roll formed. By adjusting the guide depth, the punch can notch right up to the standing seam profile. The notch pattern can be performed in the flat, prior to rollforming.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- ▶ 18 or 20-gauge mild steel capacities available
- ▶ Variable notch depth up to 1-1/4"
- ▶ Variable notch spacing (Factory set at 3/4")
- ▶ Automatically progresses flat parts or round pipe
- ▶ Voltage 18-ga model - 220/1/60, 2 HP motor
- ▶ Voltage 20-ga model - 110/1/60, 1 HP motor

*Bench mounting recommended